

PRA ADVISORY NO. 02-02-2021

SUBJECT : GUIDELINES ON THE ISSUANCE OF TRAVEL PASS FOR SRRV HOLDERS

(per IATF Resolution No 99-A, S. 2021 dated 11 February 2021)

PRA members/SRRV holders are advised of the following starting 01 March 2021

1. To secure a Travel Pass from P.R.A. before departure which shall be presented either in printed or electronic form to the immigration counters as part of the documentary requirements upon departure.
2. To inform the Servicing Division of the PRA of his/her intended travel at least seven (7) days before his/her departure for PRA to coordinate with officials of the Bureau of Immigration at any ports of exit by submitting a list of SRRV holders who were issued Travel Pass;
3. The Travel Pass shall be in the form prescribed in Annex "A" which may be accessed via PRA web at www.pra.gov.ph, to be accomplished by the SRRV holder and subsequently transmitted to PRA via e-mail at entryexit@pra.gov.ph.
4. Within three (3) days upon return of the SRRV holder to the Philippines, he/she shall inform the PRA of such return by sending electronic copies of his/her passport bio-page, SRRV sticker and the latest Philippine Immigration arrival stamp via e-mail at entryexit@pra.gov.ph.
5. In case a SRRV holder is unable to present his/her Travel Pass, subject SRRV holder may request the B.I. personnel at ports of exit to make verification with the P.R.A. to facilitate his/her departure.
6. All requests for Travel Pass are free of any charges and/or fees.
